

SEE THREAT IN WILSON'S SPEECH

truth lie to lift his eyes to the great multitude of laboring men and striving women who constitute a great nation like ours and in the very act of addressing them, get in his own consciousness some part of the impulse of their life. You cannot commend your business to the people that you do not understand and you cannot understand the people of the United States without wishing to serve them.

U. S. Must Be Ready.

"So I come to you with this thought: America is at a point, gentlemen, where it is more than ever necessary that she should understand her own ideals not only, but be ready to put them into action at any cost. It is one thing to entertain fine principle and another thing to make them work.

Has Strong Convictions.

"I am not interested and I beg that you will believe me when I say that I never have been interested in fighting for myself but I am immensely interested in fighting for things that I believe in, and so far as they are concerned, I am a challenger to all comers. It is important therefore since I am in fighting mood to let you know what are some of the things that I do believe in.

"In the first place, I believe and I summon you to show your belief in the same thing, that it is the duty of every American in everything that he does, in his business and out of it, to think first, not of himself or of any interest which he may be called upon to sacrifice, but of the country which we serve. 'America first' means nothing unless you translate it into what you do.

Principle at Any Cost.

"I believe, in the second place, that America, the country that we put first in our thoughts, should be ready in every point of policy and point of action to vindicate at whatever cost, the principles of liberty, of justice and of humanity, to which we have been devoted from the first. You cheer the sentiment but do you realize what it means?

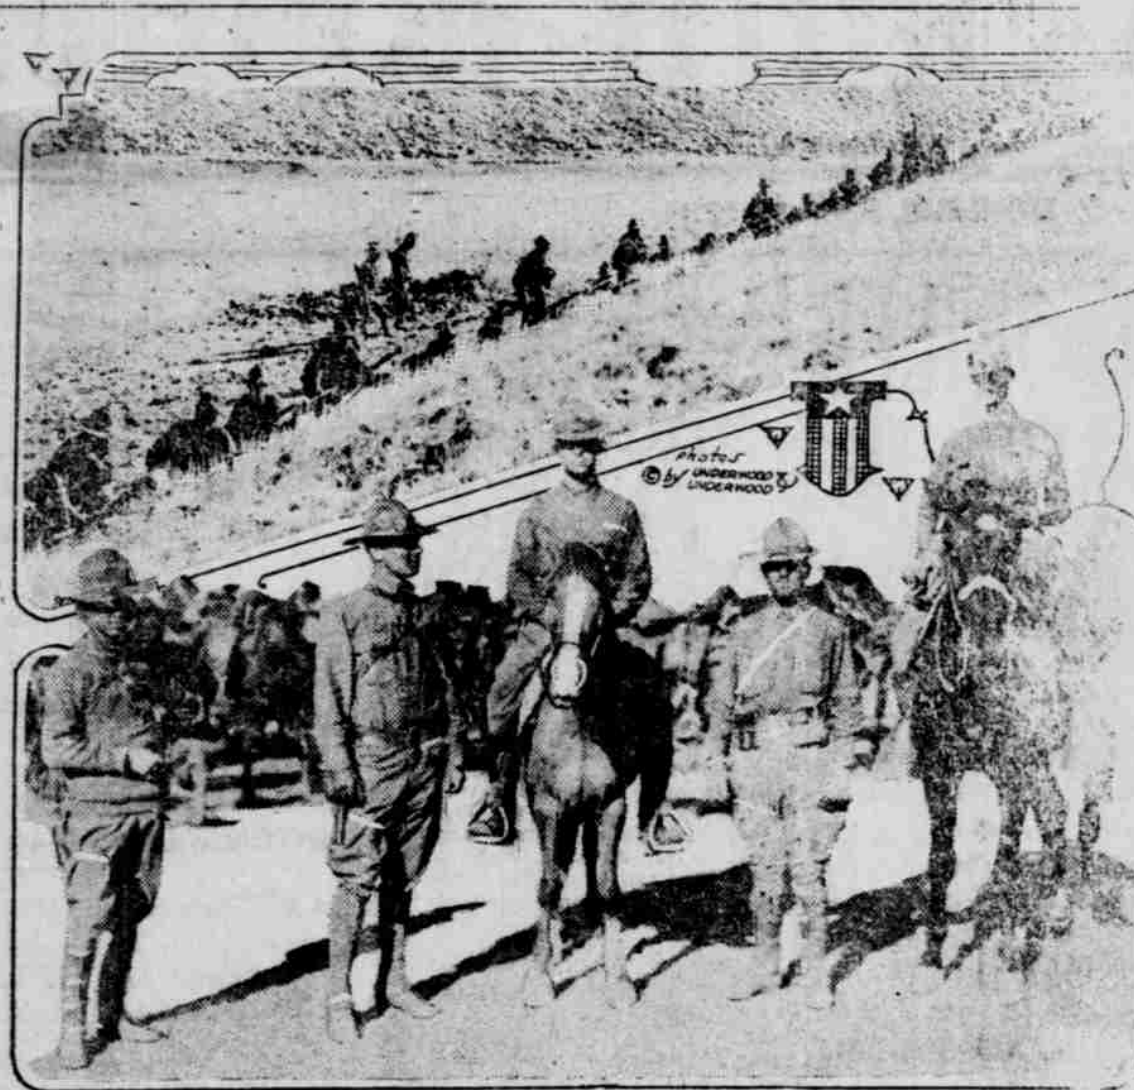

Justice to All Nations.

"It means that you have not only got to be just to other nations; it is not an easy thing to do. It is easy to demand justice, but it is not easy to give it. America but it is not easy to think first of what America, if she loves justice, ought to do in the field of international affairs. I believe that at whatever cost, America should be just to other peoples and treat other peoples as she demands that they should treat her. She has a right to demand that they treat her with justice and she has a right to insist that they treat her in that fashion but she cannot insist upon that unless she is willing to act in the same fashion toward them. That I am ready to fight for at any cost to myself.

Equal Opportunity

"Then in the third place, touching ourselves more intimately, my fellow citizens, this is what I believe: If I understand the life of America, the central principle of it is this, that no small body of persons, no matter how influential, shall be trusted to determine the policy and development of America. You know what you want in your business. You want a fair field and no favors. You want to be given the same opportunity that other men have, not only to make known what you have to sell, but to sell it under favorable conditions, as anybody else. And the principle of the life of America is that she draws her vitality not from small bodies of men who may wish to assume the responsibility of guiding and controlling her but from the body of thinking and toiling and planning men from whom she draws her energy and vitality as a nation.

Small Democrat

"I believe, and this is the reason I am a Democrat, not merely with a big D, but with a little d—I am all kinds of Democrat so far as can be discovered. Some say they believe in it, but when they act they show that they do not. They show that they think the only advice that is safe to take is their advice.

"I am not referring to any individual but I could give you an interesting and a very short list of a group of individuals who have that opinion, namely that it is not safe for the United States to escape from their control. I feel perfectly safe in the hands of the average body of my fellow citizens. The theory of government which I decline to subscribe to is that the vitality of the nation comes out of closeted conventions where a few men name the policy of the country.

"So, gentlemen, I feel at home in this company, not because I advertise, but because I have got principles that I am perfectly willing to expose to the public view, and because I want to express my sympathy with, not only that my admiration for a body of men who think this is worth while to get together in order to tell the truth.

The only thing that ever set any man free, the only thing that ever set a nation free is the truth. A man that does not love the truth is in the way of decay and of failure, and I believe that if you will just let the vitality that is in you and the enthusiasm that is in you run beyond the confines of the businesses that you may be interested in, you will presently feel that infinite reward, as if the red blood of a whole nation came surging back in to your own veins.

What Freedom Means

"Can you imagine, my fellow countrymen, a more inspiring thing than to belong to a free nation and make your way among men everyone of whom has the right and the opportunity to say what he thinks. Criticism does not hurt anybody.

"I have come therefore, as I have abundantly shown you, not to make a formal speech—if I could show you some of the things I have been obliged to do before I came here, you would know that I could not possibly make a speech up—but merely to show my profound interest in a body of men who are not only devoted to business but devoted to ideals. No man, no matter how humble his business can hold his head up among the princes of the world, if, as they ought to do, he will think of himself as the servant of the people, and not as their master, as one who would serve and not one who would govern.

"I congratulate you, my fellow citizens, upon the ideals of a profession which can lower or exalt business, as you choose, and which you have chosen to employ in its exaltation. I came away from Washington to look into your faces and get some of the enthusiasm which I always get when I come away from official toils, and mingle with great bodies of the free American people."

TUCSON STRONG ON PREPAREDNESS

Boasts Military Units Of All Branches; Even Has Aero Squadron

(By Review Leased Wire.)
TUCSON, June 29.—As the fruits of a local preparedness campaign, started since the Mexican situation became acute, Tucson boasts of having more defense units than any other border city. There have been organized home guard infantry, home guard cavalry, a rifle club battalion, nurses, auxiliaries and a local branch of the American Red Cross.

Preparations began for the organization of a hospital corps today. In addition to these defensive measures, Tucson has sent 3 companies to the "front." Incorporated in Company K is the Tucson aero squadron association.

TROOPERS HAIL CAPTAIN MOREY AS FROM DEAD

Touching Reunion Of White Officer And Gallant Colored Soldiers Takes Place At El Paso Camp

(By Review Leased Wire.)
EL PASO, June 29.—When Captain Morey visited his troops in the Fort Bliss barracks tonight they hailed him as one from the dead, having believed he could not survive the wound he sustained at Carrizal. Captain Morey was too weak to stand the ordeal of a lengthy discussion of the fight with his men. However, he chatted with them for about half an hour, the negro troopers obviously manifesting joy at meeting their leader again. "Yes, I was glad to see the boys," Captain Morey said later. "They looked well despite their hardships."

BANDITS RAID NEAR SAN ANTONIO; TWO MEN WOUNDED

Bridge Is Attacked, Soldiers Capturing One Raider. News Of Pursuit Is Denied By Sheriff

(By Review Leased Wire.)
SAN ANTONIO, June 29.—Bandits attacked the bridge over the Medina river at MacDona, Texas, about 20 miles southwest of San Antonio to night, according to a report received here. The bridge guards of United States soldiers routed the rascals who fled in the darkness.

Two Americans were wounded and are being brought to the base hospital at Fort Sam Houston. One of the bandits was taken prisoner. The wounded men are expected to arrive early in the morning.

No further details of the encounter have been received at headquarters. No action had been taken at a late hour tonight by Sheriff John Tobin to pursue the bandits and no troops were ordered to MacDona, which is on the Southern Pacific railroad leading to the border.

CHAOS REIGNS IN SOUTHERN MEXICO

Refugees Reaching Galveston Say Natives Robbing All Foreigners

(By Review Leased Wire.)
GALVESTON, Tex., June 29.—Chaotic conditions reign in the oil field district of Southern Mexico, according to five refugees who arrived here yesterday. Americans as well as the men and women of other nationalities are being robbed of all valuables and frequently insulted as they leave the country.

Between 500 and 600 troops under command of Colonel Barranca are conducting a reign of terror in the district about Tuxpan, an oil life of a foreigner is held very cheaply, the refugees declare.

The five refugees all declare they were robbed of their money and valuables before leaving Tuxpan. The refugees are August Dold, an oil superintendent, and Dr. C. E. Emersell, who maintained an office in Mexico and his wife and daughter. Cashier A. Z. Zaucher, of the Penn-Mexican Oil Company, was robbed last Sunday just as he left, of 28,000 pesos, valued at about $14,000 in American money. Zaucher is a subject of Austria.

PERSHING FORCES ARE MOVING NORTH

At Least, Mexicans So Report Adding They're Occupying Deserted Camps

(By Review Leased Wire.)
MEXICO CITY, June 29.—General Trevino, commanding the defacto government forces in Chihuahua, informed the war department by telegraph today that the American troops had commenced a retirement northward and had abandoned the towns of San Buenaventura, Las Cruces, Namiquipa and Santa Clara. These places, he added, were immediately occupied by his forces.

CHIHUAHUA CITY, June 29.—The American expeditionary force has evacuated San Buenaventura, just north of El Valle, which is 200 miles south of the border, and is pushing north, according to reports today to General Trevino.

The former Villista General Jesus M. Rios, who has been operating in southern Chihuahua, has surrendered with his men and arms, to Colonel Zuazua, amnesty being granted the entire command, General Trevino announced.

EL PASO, June 29.—General Geo. Bell, Jr., commanding the El Paso military district, said tonight that he requested Andres Garcia, Mexican consul here, several days ago to cooperate with him in having the bodies of the American troopers killed at Carrizal removed to the United States for burial.

Consul Garcia replied, General Bell said, that he would do everything in his power, but that authority for such removal would have to be obtained from General Trevino. Arrangements are being made whereby the bodies, believed to be on the Mexican battlefield, will be brought to the border at the expense of the American government, it was said.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The annual postoffice appropriation bill carrying $322,000,000 was passed today by the Senate after a debate begun more than a month ago.

DYSPEPSIA OF WOMEN

Special Treatment Required.

Many women suffer from a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms are similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines usually prescribed do not restore the patient's normal condition.

There seems to be a kind of dyspepsia caused by derangement of the female organism. While this appears to be the same as ordinary indigestion it can be relieved only by a medicine which, besides acting as a stomach tonic, is good for female ailments. Read what such a medicine did for Mrs. Williams:—

"She says:—'Before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with dyspepsia and bearing down pains in my back and sides, and after my meals my stomach would bloat up till I could scarcely get my breath. At times I was so weak I could hardly stand on my feet and I looked hollow-eyed and my skin was yellow. Now I have a good color, have gained in every way and can do my work without any pains. I think it is the best medicine on earth for stomach troubles of women.'—Mrs. NELLIE WILLIAMS, 31 West 3d Street, New Albany, Ind.
